1 POLICY AIMS

This policy outlines the measure that Emerson Valley School will take to prevent and tackle all forms of bullying.

The main aims are to ensure that:

- All stakeholders of Emerson Valley School do all that they can to prevent bullying by developing a school ethos in which bullying is properly understood and regarded as wholly unacceptable
- We maintain a safe and secure environment where all can learn and where measures are in place to reduce the likelihood of bullying
- There are procedures in place across the school to ensure a consistent approach to dealing with any incidents of bullying as they occur
- All stakeholders are clear about their responsibilities, and the responsibilities of other staff, within the school with regards to eradicating and dealing with incidents of bullying in school

2 DEFINITION OF BULLYING

The Department for Education (DfE) guidance defines bullying as 'behaviour by an individual or group, usually repeated over time, that intentionally hurts another individual or group either physically or emotionally' (Preventing and Tackling Bullying, November 2014).

Bullying can present itself in the following forms:

- Verbal - name calling, insulting, teasing, mocking
- Physical - pushing, hitting, kicking, damage to belongings
- Conditional friendship - where a child thinks someone is their friend, but times of friendliness are alternated with bullying
- Exploitative bullying - where features of a child's condition can be used to bully them
- Manipulative bullying - where a child's behaviour is being controlled
- Cyberbullying - nasty texts, sharing photos, instant messaging, Facebook and other social networks, including online gaming.

3 PREVENTING BULLYING

PSHE is our main platform for teaching children the skills they need to develop positive relationships with each other, tolerance and resilience in order to try to eradicate bullying at Emerson Valley. Our children are taught PSHE following 'The Jigsaw Approach'. Jigsaw brings together PSHE education, emotional literacy, social skills and spiritual development in a comprehensive scheme of learning. The scheme encourages children to develop self-confidence and self-esteem and make informed choices regarding social and personal issues. It also helps them to develop good relationships with other members of the school and the wider community.

The Assistant Headteacher is the member of staff with responsibility for bullying prevention.

3.1 Anti-Bullying week

Once per year, the school holds an 'Anti-Bullying Week'. This aims to help children understand what bullying is, how those that are bullying others may present themselves and how bullying behaviour makes the victim feel. Activities are planned across the school to enable children to develop a deeper understanding of these concepts and to equip them with the strategies needed to deal with bullying should occur.

3.2 Learning Mentor Support

Emerson Valley School employs Learning Mentors to support children with social and emotional difficulties. This may include children being bullied, or those that are bullying others. 1:1 or small group activities lead by the Learning Mentor may be organised as part of a pastoral support programme to support the needs of children involved with bullying. These sessions are aimed at helping children to improve their attitude and behaviour towards others and supporting children form positive relationships with their peers.

3.3 Mental health and wellbeing

We believe that it is every child's right to be given support in developing the strategies to support their mental health and wellbeing. This will be taught within PSHE lessons and through check in conversations. We use the wellbeing scale to identify where children have a low wellbeing and discuss this. This conversation can sometimes explain how a child is feeling and is used as a learning point within the class. This helps to highlight how other children's actions can have positive and negative impacts on others wellbeing. We aim to ensure that every child's mental health and wellbeing is supported and that actions that constitute bullying have a negative impact on this so try to eliminate this at the initial instance.

4 DEALING WITH BULLYING INCIDENTS

All members of staff take all forms of bullying seriously and seek to prevent it from taking place. However, where incidents do take place, staff deal with these incidents as detailed below.

4.1 Incidents that take place during lesson times and break time

Teachers keep their own records of all significant incidents that happen in their class that they are aware of in the school in line with the school Behaviour Policy. If Teachers or Teaching Assistants witness an act of bullying, they will investigate it themselves by speaking to the children involved in order to establish what has happened. Time is spent talking to the child who has done the bullying, explaining to them why their action was wrong and how they should change their behaviour in future.

Teachers or Teaching Assistants will then record a precise written account of the incident that has happened using CPOMS. This information will then be passed on to a Learning Mentor.

At the discretion of the Teacher or Teaching Assistant, it may be appropriate for a Learning Mentor to speak to the children involved instead, for example if there have been ongoing incidents involving the same child or children.

Once this CPOMS log has been completed, this will be passed to the Assistant Headteacher.

It is at the discretion of the Assistant Headteacher if the parents or carers of the children involved are informed. This decision is made bearing in mind any previous incidents that have been recorded. The Head of School and Executive Headteacher, will be informed of all incidents of bullying by the Assistant Headteacher.

If parents or carers are informed, a meeting may be arranged to discuss the incident(s) in more detail

4.2 Incidents that take place during lunchtimes

Bullying incidents that occur during lunchtimes are likely to be witnessed by Midday Supervisors. If such an incident occurs then the Midday Supervisor will immediately seek the advice of a Learning Mentor.

The Learning Mentor will then speak with the Midday Supervisor to establish what has happened and which children have been involved. It is then the responsibility of the Learning Mentor to record a precise written account of the incident that has happened using CPOMS.

4.3 Incidents that take place out of school

Where bullying incidents take place outside of school and off of the school grounds the school may decide to investigate the incident depending on the circumstances. This will be at the discretion of the Headteacher

4.4 The Role of the Head of School

It is the responsibility of the Head of School to implement this policy and to ensure that all staff (both teaching and non-teaching) are aware of the school policy, and know how to identify and deal with incidents of bullying.

The Head of School ensures that all children know that bullying is wrong, and that it is unacceptable behaviour in this school. The Head of School draws the attention of children to this fact at suitable moments. For example, if an incident occurs, the Head of School may decide to use an assembly as the forum in which to discuss with other children why such behaviour is wrong, and the actions which the school is taking to prevent it.

The Head of School ensures that all staff, including Midday Supervisors, receive sufficient training to be equipped to identify and deal with all incidents of bullying.

The Head of School sets the school climate of mutual support and praise for success, thereby making bullying less likely. When children feel they are important and belong to a friendly and welcoming school, bullying is far less likely to be part of their behaviour.

4.5 The Role of the Governing Board

The Governing Board supports the Head of School and Executive Headteacher in all attempts to eliminate bullying from our school. The Governing Board will not condone any bullying at all in our school, and any incidents of bullying that do occur will be taken very seriously, and dealt with appropriately.

The Safeguarding Governor has anti-bullying responsibility and monitors incidents of bullying that occur at regular intervals during the school academic year. This information is reported to Governors through the Safeguarding report that is presented at all Full Governing Board meetings.

The Governing Board require the Head of School and Executive Headteacher to keep accurate records of all incidents of bullying, and to report to the Governors on request about the effectiveness of school anti-bullying strategies.

4.6 The Role of Parents and Carers

Parents and Carers who are concerned that their child might be being bullied, or who suspect that their child may be the perpetrator of bullying, should contact their child's class teacher immediately. If they are not satisfied with the outcome of this, they should contact the Headteacher. If they remain concerned that their worries have not been taken seriously or acted upon appropriately, they should follow the school's Complaints Policy. This can be found on the school website.

Parents and Carers should be aware of the increasing dangers of 'cyber bullying', through the sending of text messages to mobile phones or the posting of personal information or views on social networking sites, and should exercise due parental responsibility in supervising their children's use of phones and the Internet. Please refer to the school's Online Safety Policy which can be found on the school website.

Parents and Carers have a responsibility to support the school's anti-bullying policy, actively encouraging their child to be a positive member of the school.

5 SUPPORTING CHILDREN INVOLVED WITH BULLYING

Where incidents of Bullying have taken place it is important to offer opportunities to both the child or children that have been bullied and the child or children that have bullied.

Children who have been bullied will be supported by being:

- offered an immediate opportunity to discuss the experience with their teacher or a member of staff of their choice
- advised to keep a record of the bullying as evidence and discuss how to respond to concerns and build resilience as appropriate
- reassured and given the option of continuous support by a Learning Mentor
- given opportunities to restore their self-esteem and confidence in class or through the support of a Learning Mentor
- Ensure that they have the strategies to support themselves with their mental health and wellbeing, focussing on the long-term impact where necessary.

Children who have bullied others will be helped by:

- discussing what has happened and establishing the concern and the need to change
- informing parents/carers, at the discretion of the Headteacher, to help change the attitude and behaviour of the child
- providing appropriate education and support about the effects of bullying on others including their mental health and wellbeing.
- applying appropriate sanctions in line with the school Behaviour Policy
